

Relaxing the rules as they now stand would not be in the public interest. The media presently is controlled by too few which already leads to a bias of the news one receives, we dont need more bias. This also flows into the economic sector whereby allowing few companies to own many stations, or other media reduces the number of jobs required, which cuts into the economy. I dont see any possible reason to vote for this. I urge voting against relaxing the rules.